EXPLANATORY NOTES

Briefs and Citations. Briefs shall include citations of authority and, as applicable, a procedural history section. Record citations are required.

Exhibits and Pleadings. Exhibits and relevant pleadings (including any pleading attacked) must be e-mailed to the court with electronic copies of the briefs. Exhibits may be provided in PDF format. Each exhibit should be a separate PDF. A list of exhibits must be provided for each document that contains more than one exhibit. A Table of Contents linked to individual exhibits is helpful to the court.

Length of Briefs and Motions. No motion, movant's brief, or response brief shall exceed fifteen (15) double-spaced pages with 12-point font and one-inch margins (exclusive of exhibits). No reply brief shall exceed seven (7) pages. Oversized briefs are disfavored and require leave of court. Briefs that exceed the 15-page limit must have a table of contents with the pages noted and a table of cases. No surreplies will be permitted.

E-mail Courtesy Copies. Each party shall submit an electronic version of their brief(s) as an e-mail attachment to the following e-mail address: law.calncc@cookcountyil.gov. The subject line of the e-mail must include the case number and name, and a description of the attachment(s). All briefs must be submitted to the court in Word file format (.docx or .doc). Exhibits may be submitted in PDF format.

Clerk's Status. Please note that courtesy copies are due on or before the date set in the order. There is no appearance by counsel on the Clerk's Status date. If the court has not received the required courtesy copies on or before the clerk status date, the motion may be stricken. The court does not hear motions on the clerk status date.

Modification to Briefing Schedule. The court will grant a reasonable request to extend a briefing schedule if the proposed modification does not affect a scheduled hearing date or trial date and the request is made before the day electronic courtesy copies are due. To the extent possible, the parties should confer and agree on a proposed modified schedule.

If the modified schedule is agreed, the parties must: (1) advise the court's case coordinator by phone or email (312-603-4804); and (2) submit a proposed order as an e-mail attachment to the following e-mail address: law.calncc@cookcountyil.gov. The subject line of the e-mail must include the case number and name, and the title of the order that is proposed. All such proposed orders must be submitted using the court's briefing schedule order (a fillable copy is available for download under the "Forms" section of Judge Hanlon's webpage on the Circuit Court's website), and the parties shall indicate in the "Other" field that it is an agreed order modifying the briefing schedule entered on [date of previous order]. All parties must be copied on the e-mail to the court.

In those rare instances when the parties are unable to agree on a modified schedule, the party requiring the extension will need to present a motion.

Documents Not Complying May be Stricken. Any document that does not comply with this or any other court order shall be filed subject to being stricken by the court.

Standing Order. An electronic copy of the court's standing order is available on the Circuit Court's website:
