

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS COUNTY DEPARTMENT – COUNTY DIVISION

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2006-17

SUBJECT: ASSIGNMENT OF ELECTION CASES

In conformance with a memorandum provided the Clerk earlier this year, all election cases filed shall be assigned randomly. The only exceptions are that cases filed between January 2, 2007 up to and including January 5, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 5. Cases filed during the period commencing January 8, 2007 up to and including January 12, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 6. Cases filed during the period commencing January 16, 2007 up to and including January 19, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 7. Cases filed during the period commencing January 22, 2007 up to and including January 26, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 8. Cases filed during the period commencing January 29, 2007 up to and including February 2, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 9. Finally, cases filed during the period commencing February 5, 2007 up to and including February 9, 2007 shall not be assigned to Calendar 10.

If the computer is unable to accommodate this requirement, the Clerk is directed to manually reassign such cases to the next sequential Calendar. For example, a case filed on January 2, 2007 assigned randomly to Calendar 5 shall be manually reassigned to Calendar 6.

Dated this 29th day of December 2006 at Chicago, Illinois and spread on record of this Court.

Enter

Patrick E. McGarr
Presiding Judge County Division

