Within 14 days of the date of this Order, the judge presiding over the Calendar to which the matter is re-assigned shall determine by review of the file whether the matter is still pending. If a final Order disposing of the matter has been entered, the judge shall direct the courtroom clerk to cause the electronic docket to be corrected to show that the matter has been closed.

If the review of the file indicates that the matter is or may still be pending, the judge shall schedule a Calendar Call of all such cases within 60 days of the date of this Order to determine if the matter has been resolved or remains pending.
