Standing Order: The purpose of this standing order is to establish motion, hearing, and trial rules and procedures intended to aid attorneys and litigants participating in litigation pending on this Calendar.

The Court will consider exceptions to these procedures upon request and under appropriate circumstances.

I. COURTROOM PROCEDURES

- a. The parties have the right to appear in person in court. All hearings in which live evidence is proffered shall be in person in Room 2503.
- b. The parties may also appear by Zoom for regular motions using the above Zoom Meeting ID and Password to appear remotely.
- c. Parties will use the above Zoom Meeting ID and Password to appear remotely.
- d. Parties should be muted until instructed otherwise by the Judge.
- e. The remote appearances will be conducted according to the above schedule for motion presentment, case management and status call. Any contested hearing, pretrial settlement conference, or trial shall be separately set by the Court.

- f. Agreed Orders are permitted in lieu of appearing remotely. If the parties wish to provide an agreed order, in Word format, to the Court via email that will be permitted.
- g. If the parties are late to their scheduled court date and time, then the Court retains the right to strike said date, DWP or default the parties as the Court finds appropriate.
- h. The remote court call is open to members of the public who must be muted without video during Court proceedings. The Court retains the discretion to remove any disruptive individuals.
- i. Recording Prohibited by Law. Any video recording, audio recording, photographing and/or reproducing of the livestream is strictly prohibited. The recording, publishing, broadcasting or other copying or transmission of courtroom proceedings by video, audio, still photography or any other means is strictly prohibited by Illinois Supreme Court Rule 68(A)(8) and is subject to the penalties for contempt of court.
- j.

II. ROUTINE MOTIONS

- a. Routine motions will be accepted and do not require a court appearance.
- b. Motions should be emailed to Johan.Townsend@cookcountyiil.gov and the draft order should be emailed to lawcal5orders@cookcountycourt.com at least two court days before the order will be entered by this Court.
- c. Proper notice is required. (See Circuit Court Rule 2.1). If the Court receives no objection to the routine motion, stamped copies of an order granting the requested relief will be provided to the parties by the Clerk's Office via email. However, the Court retains discretion to reject draft orders or routine motions that the Court determines, in its discretion, should not be granted.
- d. The Court will only consider the following motions as "routine":
 - i. Motions for leave to file an appearance, answer, or a motion;
 - ii. Motions to appoint special process server (notice not required);
 - iii. Agreed orders to extend time to file pleadings or briefs, continue of a court date, or amend a briefing schedule;
 - iv. Agreed dismissal orders; and
 - v. Motions for voluntary dismissal of a citation or proceeding.

- e. Parties do NOT need leave from the Court to issue an alias summons and may do so at any time after the commencement of suit.
- f. Agreed dismissal orders must contain the original signature of all parties and/or their counsel. Please be sure to strike all future scheduled dates.
- g. All other motions must be scheduled either with the Court Coordinator or through E-Filing.

III. REGULAR MOTIONS AND STATUS CALLS

- a. Scheduling - The Court's regular motion/status call slots are at 9:30/10:00/10:30 a.m. daily Monday through Thursday.
- b. Courtesy copies - All courtesy copies are due to the court no later than 7 (SEVEN) days prior to hearing date. If courtesy copies are 20 pages TOTAL or less they may be emailed to the Court Coordinator Johan Townsend at Johan.Townsend@cookcountvil.gov. If the courtesy copies exceed the 20-page email limit they must hand delivered to the courtesy copy basket outside courtroom 2503. Failure to do so may result in the motion being stricken.

NOTE: When any submission is filed through the Clerk's electronic filing procedure, Courtroom 2503 does NOT receive a copy of the filing. You are required to send a copy that has the hearing date attached to Johan.Townsend@cookcountvil.gov seven days before the hearing to comply with the courtesy copy requirement.

- c. Motions to compel and other discovery motions - Prior to bringing a motion related to discovery, the parties shall strictly adhere to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 201(k), which provides:

The parties shall facilitate discovery under these rules and shall make reasonable attempts to resolve differences over discovery. Every motion with respect to discovery shall incorporate a statement that counsel responsible for trial of the case after personal consultation and reasonable attempts to resolve differences have been unable to reach an accord or that opposing counsel made himself or herself unavailable for personal consultation or was unreasonable in attempts to resolve differences.
- d. Absent court order, no party may schedule more than five (5) citations on the same case in the same time slot.

IV. EMERGENCY MOTIONS

- a. Procedure. Emergency Motions must be scheduled with the Court Coordinator Johan Townsend at Johan.Townsend@cookcountvil.gov.

The movant shall present the motion, relevant pleadings, attachments, affidavit(s) and complaint stating the basis for the emergency to the law clerk via email. If the matter is a true emergency, an immediate hearing date will be set and movant shall provide notice to the opposing parties or their counsel.

b. True Emergencies. Generally, a true emergency exists only where:

- 1) there was no opportunity to notice a motion for the regular motion call; and,
- 2) without immediate court action, there will be irreparable damage to a party.

Matters that have become urgent by reason of a party's failure to seek timely relief are not emergencies and will not be scheduled as an emergency.

V. BRIEFS

- a. There is a 15-page limit on motions and briefs in support (collectively, the motion and brief in support must be 15 pages or less), a 15-page limit on response briefs and a 7-page limit on reply briefs. The page limitation excludes attached pleadings and exhibits. All briefs should be double-spaced with 12-point font and at least 1-inch margins. All exhibits should be page numbered and tabbed.
- b. A sur-response or sur-reply will be allowed only if the Court deems it necessary, and a party makes such a request by written motion.
- c. Case authorities should be cited to the official reporter. Counsel are advised that court personnel have access only to LEXIS.
- d. Any submitted briefs in which artificial intelligence (AI) is used must state that AI was used in its preparation and that the party has verified the authority cited.

VI. TRIALS AND EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

Trial materials - The parties' trial materials (listed below) must be brought to pre-trial. If no pre-trial is set, trial materials must be delivered to Chambers not less than three days before the trial date. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in dismissal, default or other appropriate order. The parties are strongly encouraged to submit joint or agreed trial materials to the extent possible. To the extent that separate trial materials are submitted, they must be accompanied by a statement detailing the good faith efforts of the parties to agree on a joint submission.

- A joint statement of the matter at issue.
- A list of witnesses.
- Copies of exhibits to which there is no objection.
- Exhibits subject to objection.

VII. COURT REPORTERS: Counsel should be aware that there are no official court reporters assigned to Law Division courtrooms. Any party desiring a transcript of proceedings of any matter heard on Calendar 5 is responsible for providing a private court reporter.

VIII. RESOURCES FOR SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS (PRO SE)
